

Content

List of abbreviations .....	13
Literature cited in the text .....	15
List of court cases .....	19
I. The problem of double taxation .....	23
1. Basics of international law .....	23
2. Circumstances giving rise to double taxation .....	23
2.1 Taxation of worldwide income (full tax liability) in two states .....	23
2.2 Full tax liability and limited tax liability .....	24
2.3 Limited tax liability in two states .....	24
2.4 Economic double taxation .....	25
3. Elimination of double taxation .....	25
3.1 Double taxation conventions .....	25
3.2 Unilateral measures .....	26
II. State practice in the conclusion of DTCs .....	27
1. Conventions in international law .....	27
2. The importance of model conventions .....	27
3. The importance of the OECD Model .....	28
4. Bilateral peculiarities .....	29
III. The effects of DTCs .....	31
1. The allocation of taxing rights .....	31
2. The limiting effects of DTCs .....	31
3. The relationship to domestic law .....	32
3.1 Implementation of DTCs into domestic law .....	32
3.2 Priority of DTC law .....	33
3.3 Priority of domestic law .....	34
3.4 What to consider first in practice: DTC or domestic law? .....	34
IV. The interpretation of double taxation conventions .....	37
1. Principles of interpretation in international law .....	37
2. The use of principles of interpretation stemming from international law with respect to DTCs .....	39
2.1 Autonomy of DTC law .....	39
2.2 The importance of domestic law .....	41
2.3 The importance of the OECD Model and its Commentary .....	43
2.4 The importance of changes in the OECD Model and its Commentary .....	45
2.5 The importance of OECD reports .....	49

2.6	The importance of administrative practice .....	49
2.7	The importance of other countries' court decisions .....	50
3.	The importance of interpretation rules set out in DTCs .....	50
3.1	Art. 3(2) OECD Model .....	50
3.2	The binding qualification of the source state according to Art. 23(1) OECD Model .....	53
3.3	The relevance of later commentaries .....	56
V.	Treaty abuse .....	59
1.	Denial of treaty benefits .....	59
2.	The application of domestic anti-abuse principles? .....	59
3.	The application of abuse rules of international law? .....	60
4.	The importance of statements by the OECD Committee on Fiscal Affairs in the Commentary .....	61
5.	DTC evasion as a problem of interpretation .....	63
6.	Special anti-abuse provisions .....	64
VI.	The structures and systems of DTCs .....	65
1.	Applying the convention .....	65
2.	Persons covered .....	66
3.	Taxes covered .....	66
4.	Allocation rules .....	67
5.	Methods for elimination of double taxation .....	69
VII.	Persons covered .....	71
1.	Full tax liability as a prerequisite for the application of the DTCs ..	71
1.1	Full tax liability .....	71
1.2	Effects of the DTC non-discrimination rules .....	72
1.3	Effects of other DTCs .....	72
2.	Treaty entitlement of corporate entities that are subject to limited tax liability .....	73
2.1	Public law corporations .....	73
2.2	Corporate entities that are exempt from full tax liability .....	74
3.	Treaty entitlement of partnerships and/or partners .....	75
4.	Treaty entitlement and treaty abuse .....	76
5.	Residence state in the case of dual residence .....	77
5.1	Necessity of determining the residence state .....	77
5.1.1	Allocation rules .....	77
5.1.2	Method article .....	78
5.2	Criteria .....	78
5.2.1	Permanent home .....	78
5.2.2	Centre of vital interests .....	79
5.2.3	Habitual abode .....	79
5.2.4	Nationality .....	80

---

5.2.5 Mutual agreement procedure .....	80
5.2.6 Place of effective management .....	80
VIII. Taxes covered .....	83
1. Income taxes .....	83
2. Capital taxes .....	83
3. Comparability .....	84
4. Inheritance and gift taxes .....	84
IX. Allocation rules .....	85
1. Income from immovable property .....	85
1.1 Immovable property .....	85
1.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	85
2. Business profits .....	86
2.1 Business profits .....	86
2.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	87
3. Shipping, inland waterways transport and air transport .....	93
3.1 Shipping, inland waterways transport and air transport .....	93
3.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	94
4. Dividends .....	94
4.1 Dividends .....	94
4.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	95
5. Interest .....	97
5.1 Interest .....	97
5.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	98
6. Royalties .....	99
6.1 Royalties .....	99
6.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	99
7. Capital gains .....	100
7.1 Alienation .....	100
7.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	101
8. Independent personal services .....	103
8.1 Independent personal services .....	103
8.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	105
9. Income from employment .....	107
9.1 Income from employment .....	107
9.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	107
10. Directors' fees .....	109
10.1 Directors' fees .....	109
10.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	110
11. Artistes and sportsmen .....	110
11.1 Artistes and sportsmen .....	110
11.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	111
12. Pensions .....	112

12.1 Pensions .....	112
12.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	113
13. Government service .....	113
13.1 Government service .....	113
13.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	114
14. Students .....	115
14.1 Payments to students and business apprentices for their maintenance, education or training .....	115
14.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	115
15. Other Income .....	116
15.1 The concept of “other income” .....	116
15.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	117
16. Taxation of capital .....	117
16.1 Capital .....	117
16.2 Allocation of taxing rights .....	118
X. Methods for elimination of double taxation .....	121
1. The importance of the method article .....	121
1.1. Relation to the allocation rules .....	121
1.2. Credit and exemption method .....	121
1.3. Switch-over clauses .....	122
1.4. No effect of the method articles .....	123
2. Exemption method .....	123
2.1 Effects .....	123
2.2 Exemption from tax base .....	125
2.3 Progression .....	126
3. Credit method .....	128
3.1 Effects .....	128
3.2 Amount of allowable tax .....	130
3.3 Maximum credit .....	132
XI. The implementation of treaty benefits in both contracting states ...	135
1. Source state .....	135
2. Residence state .....	136
3. The importance of the evidence of taxation in the other contracting state .....	136
XII. The arm’s length principle of Art. 9 OECD Model .....	139
XIII. Non-discrimination .....	143
1. Scope of application of non-discrimination rules .....	143
2. Non-discrimination on the grounds of nationality .....	143
3. Non-discrimination on the grounds of the PE of an enterprise ....	144
4. Non-discrimination according to Art. 24(4) OECD Model .....	145

5. Non-discrimination in connection with the shareholders/ partners of a company .....	145
XIV. Mutual agreement procedure .....	147
1. Mutual agreement procedures .....	147
2. Consultation procedure .....	149
3. Arbitration procedure .....	149
XV. Exchange of information .....	151
1. Scope of application of the exchange of information .....	151
2. Types of exchange of information .....	152
3. Limitations on the exchange of information .....	153
4. Competence and obligation of secrecy .....	154
XVI. Assistance in the collection of taxes .....	155
XVII. Inheritance tax treaties .....	157
1. Structure .....	157
2. Scope of the convention .....	157
3. General definitions .....	158
4. Allocation of taxing rights .....	158
5. Special provisions .....	159
Annexes
Annex 1:
OECD Model Convention with Respect to Taxes on Income and on Capital .....	161
Annex 2:
UN Model Double Taxation Convention between Developed and Developing Countries .....	185
Annex 3:
OECD Model Convention with Respect to Estate, Inheritance and Gift Taxes .....	207
Index .....	217